

"Hope" is the thing with feathers, by Emily Dickinson.

"Hope" is the thing with feathers,
That perches in the soul,
And sings the tune without the words,
And never stops, at all,
And sweetest, in the Gale, is heard,
And sore must be the storm,
That could abash the little Bird
That kept so many warm,
I've heard it in the chilliest land,
And on the strangest Sea,
Yet, never, in Extremity,
It asked a crumb, of me.
